2010 Worship Arts Internship Prospectus

Purpose for Internships

Our Internship Program seeks to accomplish three purposes...

1. Provide a immersive, holistic learning experience that will train future leaders for ministry.
2. Fulfill educational requirements (if applicable).
3. Provide a learning experience that will benefit our church by allowing interns to contribute to the service and ministry of our congregation.

Structure of Internships

Interns will focus on ministry in these areas...

1. Concentrated Ministry

Each intern will also focus on a concentrated ministry area under a staff member. He/she will be exposed to the necessary skills and abilities to administrate and run that particular ministry. A significant portion of the intern's time will be spent in their concentrated area.

2. Other Concentrated Ministries

Interns will also learn how other concentrated ministry areas operate and function with the "big picture" of the church.

Learning Strategy

Each intern will sign a personalized "Learning Covenant." It will include any educational requirements and all educational requirements and expectations. The strategy for learning will include three areas of focus...

1. Personal Research

Topics that are directly related to located ministry will be researched and studied.

2. Individual Mentoring

Their concentrated ministry area's staff will mentor interns. They will spend considerable time learning how to administrate and run that particular area.

Who Are We Looking For?

We're looking for students who...

- have completed their sophomore year of study.
- are serious about entering full-time ministry.
- will give 100% on every assignment.
- are dependable and positive.
- take seriously their learning experience.
